History Of Art Janson 8th

Long established as the classic and seminal introduction to art of the Western world, the Eighth Edition of Janson's History of Art is groundbreaking. When Harry Abrams first published the History of Art in 1962, John F. Kennedy occupied the White House, and Andy Warhol was an emerging artist. Janson offered his readers a strong focus on Western art, an important consideration of technique and style, and a clear point of view.

An art teacher at Tops at Seward School in Seattle, Washington told her eighth-grade students that the concept of peace is "racist," and that President Donald Trump is divisive, adding that some of her own art projects are "racist" and derived from "white privilege." The teacher added that art history comes from a "European, euro-centric 'white supremacist' point of view."
