SHOUT! by Philip Norman is my favorite Beatles biography. As a second choice, "The Love You Make" by Peter Brown was excellent. Brown worked with future Beatles manager Brian Epstein in his music store business NEMS and later when on to work at Apple Corp., The Beatles business entity.

Shout! The Beatles in Their Generation by Philip Norman

The second, and much more serious flaw of 'Shout!', is the fact that Norman doesn't seem to think that the Beatles were anything other than a rather successful pop group. This is a critical mistake when writing about the Beatles, and it's common to much of the earlier commentary about them.
